

HOW MUCH DO I GET FOR MY PAIN AND SUFFERING

Nothing. Workers' Compensation is a tradeoff, whereby the employee does not have to prove someone was to blame for his injury. In return for this no-fault liability, the worker has to trade in some of his rights that he would enjoy if he were injured outside the workplace including compensation for pain and suffering.